January 7, 2556 BC. - Foundation 01, the first book from Singapore's FZD School of Design, contains great illustrations and great ideas about concept art. "Every time we paint, we get more creative," she said. "When we draw people in pictures, we become more emotional, we become more creative, and this is exactly the area where we are going to apply our skills." She also said that her children, ages 3 to 10, are likely to draw more often than they do now, and she hopes that she can teach them to understand art so they can create their own artwork.
