Field of the Invention The present invention relates to a switching element and, in particular, to a switching element in which a parasitic bipolar transistor formed on the basis of a drain-to-source parasitic transistor formed in a P-type well region is reduced in its on-state resistance and yet an electric isolation of a well region containing a parasitic NPN transistor formed on the basis of a drain-to-source parasitic transistor formed in an N-type well region is secured. 2. Description of the Related Art A conventional switching element as shown in FIGS. 1A and 1B will be described. FIG. 1A is a plan view of the conventional switching element, and FIG. 1B is a sectional view taken along a line IIIB--IIIB in FIG. 1A. A P-type well region 1 is formed in a N-type semiconductor substrate 20, and includes an N-type drain region 3 of an NPN transistor 2 and an N-type source region 4 of the NPN transistor 2. An N-type drain region 22 formed in a P-type well region 21 is connected to the drain region 3 through a $P.sup.+$ -type source diffusion region 5 and an $N.sup.+$ -type drain diffusion region 6. An $N.sup.+$ -type well contact diffusion region 31 is formed in the P-type well region 21 and connected to the $N.sup.+$ -type drain diffusion region 6

Barber II, president and CEO of Repairers of the Breach, was quoted in a recent e-newsletter that the group believes the Obama administration is "determined" to ease the requirements for people to become teachers or clergy. "So many organizations and interest groups promote themselves as being education-oriented when in fact they are not," Barber is quoted as saying. "But when you have an administration that is determined to level the playing field in such a way as to make the ladder even more inaccessible for people who are in the middle and low-income brackets, you know it's a problem. "It's a real war on community," he said in the e-newsletter. "If the government wants to diminish the role of people in the communities, then they can try. But who are we going to turn to in the aftermath when the policies of the federal government are so ill-conceived and detrimental to our communities?" Speaking of education, the Rev. Dr. William J. Barber II, president and CEO of Repairers of the Breach, was quoted in a recent e-newsletter that the group believes the Obama administration is "determined" b7e8fdf5c8

Welcome to Razz & Razz Bass 2 from razzandrazbs (V-1-0). This is a premium VST, designed to be very easy to use and implement, and includes a 'contact us' page, so you can get support without having to post in the forum. It has over 650 presets, including presets for Bob Marley, The Beatles, Disco, Hip Hop, Indie, Metal, Soul, Country, Classical, Classical Pop, Electronic, Soundtracks, Jazz, Metal, R&B, Indie, World and more. And the amount of presets doesn't end there, so you can always create and sound you like, playing your favorite songs and it will be ready as quick as a button. Q. "My song isn't playing... Why? How do I fix this? A. If your song isn't playing, you probably have a menu in your DAW menu that has been enabled (don't confuse this with the Track Selection Dialog, which is a separate window). You can still use your DAW like this and it will still work, but the only problem is that this menu is activated whenever a song is selected. By default, the 'Pre-Roll' menu is enabled on a DAW, which allows you to play (or pre-roll) a song, without selecting it. This is a great feature of some DAWs, because this allows you to just play (or pre-roll
